

LOUISIANA ARCHAEOLOGICAL SOCIETY NORTHWEST
CHAPTER PRESENTS

SPEAKER: JAY GRAY

JOBS IN ARCHAEOLOGY: CULTURAL RESOURCE MANAGEMENT

MARCH 10, 2022
6:00 PM

BOSSIER PARISH LIBRARIES HISTORY CENTER
2206 BECKETT STREET
BOSSIER CITY, LOUISIANA 71111

Do you know anyone that wants to be an archaeologist? Bring them to learn about the field of Cultural Resource Management, the largest employer of archaeologists in the U.S. Professionals in this field work for governmental agencies, engineering firms, and environmental and cultural resource consulting firms. The main objective that these professionals share is to ensure compliance with historic preservation laws and regulations, and to help protect our nation's irreplaceable resources of historical and cultural significance. Come and learn more about this exciting career path, and hear stories from the field told by a career archaeological consultant.

For more information contact: jwgray1000@gmail.com